THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.No.23115 of 2006

ORDER:

This writ petition is misconceived. The petitioner has an effective and alternative remedy by way of filing a statutory appeal under Section 76 of the A.P. Cooperative Societies Act, 1964 before the appellate authority. Instead of availing the same, the petitioner has ventured to file this writ petiton.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that since no reasons are given, the petitioner is not in a position to file the appeal. He further states that certain documents, which are required for proper adjudication of Section 71 proceedings were not furnished to the petitioner, in spite of his best efforts.

All these things can be agitated by the petitioner before the appellate authority. I am of the opinion that no ground is made out to interfere with the impugned proceedings. However, this will not preclude the petitioner from approaching the appellate authority and working out his remedies, as available under law.

Writ petition is dismissed accordingly. No costs.
